Wasp-Repellent Coffee

In an attractive design

Coffee smoke as a wasp repellent is a home remedy that is growing in popularity. The flying pests dislike the smell and will avoid the area.

But where should you put the coffee grounds*? With the Gardigo wasp repellent burner, you now have an incense burner that protects the embers from the wind while still allowing enough air for the coffee to burn properly.

Thanks to the practical loop, you can easily move the coffee burner to another location without touching the upper part of the device, which may become hot.

Enjoy a wasp-free time!
